

Joel — Worksheet 1

The Day of the Lord

Read the passages on the back of this sheet (or use the biblestudy.fyi TTS Bible Player) before you begin. Answer in your own words on the lines provided.

1. What does God call the people to do in Joel 2:12?

2. What does Joel 2:13 say should be torn instead of garments?

3. How is God described in that same verse?

4. What encouragement is given to the land and animals in Joel 2:21-22?

5. Reflection: Joel 2:13 emphasises the heart over outward show. Is there an area of your own faith that's more about outward habit than inward sincerity right now?

Scripture for Joel — The Day of the Lord

King James Version. Flip back to the front to answer the questions.

Joel 2:12-13

¹²Therefore also now, saith the LORD, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: ¹³And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

Joel 2:21-23

²¹Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things. ²²Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength. ²³Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.
